

Color-Symbol-Image

A thinking routine for distilling the essence and making connections.

Think of the big idea(s) and important theme(s) in what you have just read or seen or heard.

- Choose a color that you think best represents the essence of that idea.
- Create a symbol that you think best represents the essence of that idea.
- Sketch an image that you think best captures the essence of that idea.

Three large, empty rounded rectangular boxes arranged horizontally, intended for students to draw or write their responses to the prompts above.

Below each box, write a short explanation for why you chose that particular color, symbol, or image.

Six horizontal lines arranged in three columns of two, providing space for students to write their explanations for each of the three boxes above.
